Graphic Designer Job Description

Position Overview
SAI is seeking a graphic designer to develop the visual identity for a new labor rights program for Malaysia's palm oil and apparel manufacturing industries—"MY Voice".

Deliverables
- Color scheme for program
- Program logo design
  - Logo files and lock-up
    - Full color and single color versions
    - White/bnw
    - Versions that include partner logos
- Layout and design for program overview document (two page)

Preference for candidates based in Malaysia. Preference for candidates with some knowledge of Bahasa Malaysia.

Application
To apply, please send a proposal, including work samples and expected price and timeline to recruits@sa-intl.org. Please include “MY Voice Graphic Designer” in the subject line of the email.

About
Social Accountability International (SAI) is a global non-governmental organization working to advance human rights for workers around the world. SAI’s vision is of decent work everywhere—sustained by an understanding that socially responsible workplaces benefit business while securing fundamental human rights. SAI empowers workers and managers at all levels of businesses and supply chains through social standards and guidance, training and capacity-building programs, and convening partnerships that drive dialogue and consensus-based solutions. For more information about SAI, visit our website at https://sa-intl.org.

SAI is an equal opportunity employer. Diversity makes us stronger and we are committed to creating an inclusive environment for all employees.

Funding is provided by the United States Department of Labor under cooperative agreement number ILAB-21-06. 100% of the total costs of the project or program is financed with USG federal funds, for a total of $5,000,000 dollars.